President's Night: GB Miscellany

Welcome The president welcomed members to the first meeting of the new session.

Apologies for absence Colin Caskie, Francis Podger, George Souter

Minutes The minutes of the last meeting of session 2011-12 will be tabled at the next meeting

Display The president, Alan Roy, displayed a wide range of GB stamps including many overprints. He gave an informative description of the differences that existed in various sets of stamps. The second display traced the development of the post from 1635 to 1840. He again gave an interesting account of the many changes to the postal rates. A handout for both displays was given to members.

Business Publicity: Colin Campbell referred to the forthcoming Perth 2012 and asked for volunteers to man the Society table, the ASPS table and to assist with the erection and dismantling of the display frames.

Packet Secretary: David Easson indicated that sales from the packets had topped £1100 with a cheque going to the treasurer for £70.

Librarian: David Easson stated that work on the library had continued throughout the summer and that a draft list of books was available.

Treasurer: Robert Duguid asked that annual dues be paid as soon as possible. Receipts for payment were available on request.

Other business: Two new members were admitted – Colin Caskie and Harry Jackson
The German Colonies PS were meeting at the Queen's Hotel in Perth on 6 October when there will be a bourse from 11am to 3pm by three dealers who would not be attending Perth 2012.

Society web-site: Norrie Kelso stated that the site was up-to-date and that the latest auction lists from Aberdeen PS would be added at the weekend.

The next meeting was to be a display by Jean Osborne who cannot attend due to family illness. Ron Goodfellow will display in her place.

The next morning meeting will be held on Thursday 4 October from 10am to 12 noon.

Vote of Thanks The vote of thanks was proposed by Charles Lloyd

Date of Next Meeting 11 October 2012
