Visit from the Caledonian Philatelic Society

Welcome: The vice president, Francis Podger, welcomed the visitors from the Caledonian PS - Ray Welland, Lyn Robinson, Ken Norris, John Gavin and Mrs Gavin - and the members.

Apologies for absence: Alan Roy, David Cree Robert Duguid, Harry Jackson and George Soutar.

Minutes: The minutes of the meeting of 14 March 2013 were adopted on the proposal by Doug Howkins and seconded by Norrie Kelso..

Display: Ray Welland displayed less known material relating to WWI. This covered early BEF covers and German troop mail along with a range of POW mail. The display ended with some postcards by Bruce Bairnsfather and Donald Cargill.

Lyn Robinson gave an informative talk on her display relating to the history of the transport of mail by coach.

Ken Norris gave a display on Christmas with stamps, covers and air letters. As well as from the Indian Ocean there were also items from Christmas Island in the central Pacific and in Canada.

John Gavin's display was part of his collection showing the work of Erik Bruun in designing stamps, postcards, labels and bank notes.

Vote of Thanks: This was given by Sandy Forbes.

Business:

President: The death of member Ron Marr and past member Stan Paget was announced and a minute's silence was observed.

Secretary: There is to be a Committee Meeting on 4 April. Suggestions for the syllabus were still welcome.

Publicity: Vol. 60 of Scottish Philately was tabled along with forms for the ASPS Dinner at Congress and the informal Scottish Philatelists Club Dinner on the evening prior to Congress.

Web master: The above items were also on the website.

Date of Next Meeting:

4 April: Morning meeting will be at the Methodist Church, 27 Marketgait from 10am to noon.

11 April: A display of Ceylon by Willie King
