Visit from Arbroath Philatelic Society

Welcome: The president welcomed the members and visiting speakers – Brian Cargill and Chad Neighbor.

Apologies for absence: David Easson.

Minutes: The minutes of the previous meeting were approved on the proposal by Doug Howkins and seconded by Dennis Collins.

Displays:

Brian Cargill gave a display of part of his collection on lighthouses. His interest in this area started with his involvement in celebrating the bicentenary of the Bell Rock Lighthouse. His display included this lighthouse and stamps and covers depicting lighthouses around the world as well as postcards, advertising cards and coins.

Chad Neighbor's display was in two parts – D-Day 1944-2004 relating to his father's involvement in WWII and the 60th celebrations in France. His second display of 'Compound Postal Stationery' was a collection of used stationery cards that had an additional value impression due to increase in postal rates.

Business:

President/ASPS Representative: Covers and cards for the forthcoming ASPS Congress were still on sale at 50p each (60p if purchased at Congress).

The Council Meeting will be held on 20 March at 14 Comerton Place, Drumoig.

Secretary: The recent visit to Perth PS by four members had been well received and appreciated. An application for membership had been received from Alexander Steele who had been a member some years ago. The application was proposed by Charles Lloyd, seconded by Robert Duguid and accepted nem.con.

Copies of the latest ABPS News was tabled.

The next meeting of the library group will be re-scheduled by those involved.

Publicity: Jersey Philatelic Bureau will be present at Congress in April and machine J001 will print Post and Go stamps with a Congress label. Members were encourage to visit the stand.

Web master: Web-site is up to date with new information added.

Vote of Thanks: The vote of thanks was proposed by Peter Dix.

Date of Next Meeting: The next evening meeting will be at 7.30pm on 13 March.

The next morning meeting will be held in the Art Society Gallery on 6 March from 10am to noon.
